Kim Beggs, Blue Bones

Blue Bones - the newest CD from Yukon singer/songwriter Kim Beggs and her debut on Black Hen Music - delivers on the promise of her first two critically acclaimed albums Wanderer's Paeon and Streetcar Heart. Blue Bones features nine original tracks as well as four well chosen cover songs. Beggs offers a stunning version of the old traditional, "I'm Thinking of My Blue Eyes" that will melt the most cynical of hearts as well as interpretations of classics from Bob Dylan, Patty Griffin, and Jack Clement that are sung in such a way that they sound as if she wrote them herself. Blue Bones is produced by Juno Award winning producer Steve Dawson and features an all-star lineup of musicians including John Raham (Be Good Tanyas) on drums, Keith Lowe (Bill Frisell) on bass, Chris Gestrin on keyboards, and Gurf Morlix and Laurie Lewis contributing backup vocals.

Leon Rosselson & Robb Johnson, The Liberty Tree: A Celebration of the Life and Writings of Thomas Paine
The Liberty Tree tells the story of United States Founding Father Thomas Paine's extraordinary life, interweaving Paine's own words from his letters and the pamphlets that made him one of the most influential and dangerous writers of his age. While the recording includes readings of extracts from newspaper reports, diaries, letters, and other documents of the times, also featured are Paine-inspired tracks written and sung by prolific and influential singer/songwriters Robb Johnson and Leon Rosselson. It adds a compelling dimension to the story by reflecting Paine's radical ideas and evaluating them in the context of the 21st century. This unique blend of words and music challenges received opinion in the same way Paine's writings did.
